	Study-Sessions

The Spring 2015 final exam schedule attempts to avoid conflicts and keep exam times during their normal semester class meeting day(s) and period, while providing preparation time to be used for study-sessions. Other information about Spring 2015 final exams is listed below (and is current as of April 30, 2015):

1. The class final exam period is based on the meeting pattern listed on the first line of the class entry of the Schedule of Classes. For example, a class section is listed in the Schedule of Classes on two lines in the following manner:

T R    8:00 – 8:50
W     9:00 – 10:50

The starting time listed for the first line of the meeting pattern is 8:00. The days listed for the first line of the meeting pattern are TR, and therefore are in the category 8:00 or 8:30 on T and/or R. Using the Spring 2015 Final Exam Schedule grid, it is determined that this course's final exam period is Tuesday, May 12, from 8:00 – 10:00a.m.

2. Classes should plan to hold their final exams in their regularly scheduled classrooms. The Academic Scheduling Office will forward departments information relative to the location of their exams for those classes that cannot hold their final exams in their regularly scheduled rooms due to a space conflict. This will be done in advance of the final exam week to provide adequate notice for all.

Classes that meet less than the entire semester should hold their exams during the last regularly scheduled class session prior to the formal final exam week.

It is a policy of the University that no final exam be given prior to the scheduled final exam period, and that students be given their exams at the designated times listed on the Spring 2015 Final Exam Schedule grid. Any deviation from this policy must be approved by the Dean of the College.

3. Students who find they have more than three exams on the same day may petition, and students who have two exams scheduled at the same time should petition their Dean for approval to take an exam during the make-up exam period on the last day of final exam week. Provision for such a make-up exam period does not mean that students may decide to miss the scheduled exam time to make it up during this make-up period. This period is to be used only for students whose petitions have been approved by their Dean.
4. Students who must miss a final exam may not take the exam before the time scheduled for the class exam. Information relative to the proper grade to be given students who miss a final exam and are not involved in a situation covered in Section 3 can be found in the memorandum forwarded to members of the instructional staff when they receive the final grade listing for the recording of grades.

5. Classes with a special common exam time.
